Subject: South Bay Salt Pond Restoration Project JD and Technical Documents

Hi Everyone,

Attached is a table listing some of the technical documents located on the South Bay Salt Pond Restoration Project website that may be of interest. The website (<http://www.southbayrestoration.org/documents/technical/>) has a number of technical studies, the ones in the attached table seemed the most relevant at this time.

The 2007 JD for the project is also posted on the website (<http://www.southbayrestoration.org/documents/permit-related/>). Below are the direct links to the JD documents.

I've also left a message with Brenda Buxton at the Coastal Conservancy asking if they have any JD documents not posted on the website. I'll let you know when I hear back from her. Below is her contact information in case anyone needs to contact her.
